Alberta Liberals working hard to elect Tom Dooley in Drumheller-Stettler

Edmonton - Alberta Liberals from across the province will board a bus on Saturday to be on the ground volunteering in the Drumheller-Stettler by-election for candidate Tom Dooley.

"There is real momentum building in this campaign team. It's exciting to see Alberta Liberals working hard to support Tom Dooley," said Alberta Liberal Leader Kevin Taft.

"This by-election is a real opportunity for voters in Drumheller-Stettler to look at what their choices are. We will be working hard this weekend to reach every voter," said Taft.

Drumheller-Stettler candidate Tom Dooley is a cattle rancher and a former County Councillor and Deputy Reeve in the County of Badlands.

"Tom Dooley represents a new kind of government. A government that will focus on the priorities of all Albertans and provide clear leadership and focus for a 21st century Alberta," concluded Taft.

Volunteers will be arriving at the campaign offices by bus at the following times:
